

30 Cool New Security Products And Solutions Launched At RSA 2016

by Sarah Kuranda on March 3, 2016, 8:50 am EST

CoSoSys

DLP and MDM provider CoSoSys, Friedrichshafen, Germany, on Monday revealed the launch of Endpoint Protector DLP for Linux in Private Beta. As Linux gains market share, the new solution is designed to prevent data leakage from those environments. Features of the new solution include content filtering, tracking of user data transfers, the ability to block file transfers and comprehensive reports to identify possible breaches.